

DAI is interested in art that has a general appeal to the public for decorating residences, offices, hotels, health care facilities and other institutions worldwide. DAI is seeking the following forms of original art for reproduction and incorporation into its wall décor product line of fine art.

Please visit Decorative Arts International web site, www.decorativeartsonline.com and examine DAI's online catalog to see examples of our products and to determine if you believe your art would be appealing to DAI. If you would like to be considered as a participant in DAI's Fine Artist Partnership Program, please fill out and send the following:

To be considered for participation in DAI's program, DAI requires that the Artist submit via email four different jpeg images for each category the Artist wants us to consider.

DAI will evaluate your submissions and communicate whether or not the art is eligible for utilization in our products. At that time, we will advise you of the royalty rate DAI will pay you for using your art and provide an agreement that will establish the terms applicable to our working relationship.

Submission of jpeg images for evaluation by DAI should be made by separate email for each category of art to: artist@decorativeartsonline.com. Include the title of the artwork, the type of art and a brief description of it for each image submitted.
